

part of H-Net: Humanities and Social Sciences Online

*Flyer revised on 16 April 2009

New Scholarship in American Foreign Relations

A Williams/H-Diplo Conference

Saturday, 18 April 2009 | 9 am- 5 pm

Griffin 3, Williams College | FREE & open to the public*

(*Please register with James.McAllister@williams.edu if attending)

9-10:30 am | World Out of Balance: International Relations & the Challenge of American Primacy

Authors: Stephen G. Brooks and William C. Wohlforth, Dartmouth College

Chair: James McAllister, Williams College

Panelists: Stacie Goddard, Wellesley College; Jeff Legro, University of Virginia

Marc Lynch, George Washington University; Randall Schweller, The Ohio State University

10:45 am–12:15 pm | Inventing Vietnam: The United States and State Building, 1954-1968

Author: James M. Carter, Drew University

Chair: Jessica Chapman, Williams College

Panelists: Scott Laderman, University of Minnesota; Fredrik Logevall, Cornell University

Edward Miller, Dartmouth College; Jessica Elkind, San Francisco State University

1:45-3:15 pm | Occupational Hazards: Success & Failure in Military Occupation

Author: David Edelstein, Georgetown University

Chair: Paul Macdonald, Williams College

Panelists: David Ekbladh, Tufts University; Peter Liberman, City University of New York

Greg Mitrovich, Columbia University; Gideon Rose, Managing Editor, Foreign Affairs

3:30-5 pm | Nexus: Strategic Communications & American Security in World War I

Author: Jonathan Reed Winkler, Wright State University

Chair: Mark Stoler, Williams College

Panelists: John Milton Cooper, University of Wisconsin; Ross Kennedy, Illinois State University

Alex Roland, Duke University; Phyllis Soybel, College of Lake County, IL

For further details and updates, please contact Carrie Greene, at Carrie.Greene@williams.edu or call (413) 597-2347

Sponsored by H-Diplo, the Stanley Kaplan Program in American Foreign Policy, and the Leadership Studies Program at Williams College

