

Friday 11/11 8:30-10:15	Party, Politics and Corrupt Practices: Campaign Finance Law in the Gilded Age	New Perspectives on Civil Rights History	Political Economy as a Legal Form in Early America	Children and the Courts in Latin America	Wives and Mothers
10:30-12:15	History, Memory, Justice in the Trials of World War II	Judicial Review, Public Opinion and Slavery	Public Authority and Private Matters in Early American Law	Outliers, Objectors, and the Modern American State	Widows and the Law
1:45-3:30	"Matters of Definition": Law and Meaning in Nineteenth Century America	Author-Meets-Readers: From Jim Crow to Civil Rights	Intellectual Origins of the U.S. Constitution	American Legal Imperialism in Asia	Actions and Interests in English Law
4:00-5:45			Presidential Plenary Session: Wartime Justice and Civil Liberties
Saturday 11/12 8:30-10:15	Constitutionalism at the Grassroots		Grounds for Freedom: Slaves' Lawsuits in the Atlantic World	Trusts, Corporations and Colonialism	Roman Civil Law
10:30-12:15	Presidential Panel: The Scholarship of Lawrence Friedman	Nineteenth Century Views of Congressional Power	The Law of Nations in the Eighteenth Century British Atlantic	History of Intellectual Property Rights	Author-Meets-Readers: The Making of Gratian's Decretum
12:30-2:00			Annual Luncheon
2:15-4:00	Futures for U.S. Legal History	The Bureaucracy of Slavery and Emancipation: Federal Power and State Building, 1800-1870	The Morality of Borders	The 1950s at Home and Abroad	Episodes in Early Modern Law
4:15-6:00	A Tribute to Kitty Preyer	Law and Regulation in the Progressive Era	U.S. Influence on Other Nations	Criminal Law in the Twentieth Century	Case Microhistories