

CALL FOR PAPERS

AMERICAN SOCIETY FOR LEGAL HISTORY Radisson Plaza Lord Baltimore Baltimore, Maryland November 16-19, 2006

The Program Committee of the ASLH invites proposals for complete panels and individual papers for the 2006 meeting, to be held November 16-19 in Baltimore. Panels and papers on any facet or period of legal history are welcome. We particularly welcome topics and participants representing the full range of the Society's diversity.

Panel proposals should include the following: a c.v. for every person on the paper, including complete contact information; 300-word abstracts of individual papers; complete or partial drafts of papers, where possible; and a short description of the panel. Individual papers submissions should consist of an abstract, a draft paper (where possible), and a c.v.

Those who presented at the 2005 conference are welcome to submit papers and/or proposals for the 2006 conference. Although the committee will strive to include papers from those who have not presented recently, there will be no rule against presenting in consecutive years.

The deadline for submissions will be February 1, 2006. Electronic submissions (in Word or Word Perfect) are strongly encouraged and should be sent to <jwitt@law.columbia.edu>.
